

Lecale and Downe Historical Society invites you to the

LAUNCH

'Notable Inhabitants of Downpatrick'

by Aynsworth Pilson

Speaker: Colm Rooney

Monday, 19th September 2016 at 7.30pm

Down County Museum, Downpatrick

This fascinating and important work gives us a glimpse into a lost world. Downpatrick in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries is brought vividly to life through the stories of seventy-seven of the most notable inhabitants.

Businessman Aynsworth Pilson (1777-1863) has left us a uniquely detailed record of his era and its personalities.

Edited, annotated and transcribed by

Reginald WH Blackwood, 1930

W Gordon Wheeler and Colm Rooney, 2016

This fourth Monograph by the Society contains 320 pages with illustrations

Copies available after the Talk £10 each

Pilson Monograph by post:

UK & Ireland £15 (including postage & packing)

Rest of the World £20 (including postage and packing)

Cheques payable to Lecale & Downe Historical Society

To: Colm Rooney, 8 Castle Street, Strangford, Downpatrick BT30 7NF

Number of Copies.....

Name.....

Address.....

.....